That's a MAN, not a woman. They have Greek groups for men on the UW campus called fraternities. He should look into those and leave the sororities for women.

Walking around in a sorority with morning wood while pretending to be a girl is generally not well received by the sisters.

Until He has fully committed to become a woman (complete cut it off) he/she should not have had an option to join, until then He is just the creep in the corner stroking his man parts.

Artemis - you are a man. A fat one at that. Get a life. You are NOT a sorority sister.

I think those people who at one time was either a man or woman should create their own Sorority & fraternities!

I agree with Gutfeld. Let Yasmin hire that dude as a nanny...get undressed in front of him...go clothes shopping with him and let him go into the dressing room with her to help her unzip her clothes. See how much she really believes that he's a woman.

What happened to, "Believe all women"?
Unless there's a man in a dress and lipstick involved? Then women don't matter.

Support these sorority sisters in their fight to keep this man out of their home.
Glad to see college kids standing up for what's right instead of embracing his lunacy.
